Information for members who have not previously attended the Dinner:

The evening commences with pre-Dinner drinks in the WOs' & NCOs' Mess followed by the AGM and then by Dinner. After the last course the Chairman will propose the Loyal Toast and this will be followed by toasts to the Regiment and the Association. An update on current Regimental activities will be delivered by a senior officer of the Household Cavalry. Gentlemen are asked not to remove their jackets or ties during the Dinner, or to leave their seats until after the speeches have been concluded and the Chairman and guests have risen from the table.

If you have received this correspondence by post and you have an e-mail account it is because Home Headquarters does not have your correct e-mail address. It would be appreciated if you could provide your current e-mail address (and any future changes) to Home Headquarters either to the address on this order form or to HomeHq@householdcavalry.co.uk This will reduce production and postal charges to ensure funding goes to the appropriate welfare causes. Thank you.
